Boys Will be Boys!

The little Chaps can't help wearing out Clothing. They are not to blame. Parents should see to it

The Clothes They Wear

Are of right stuff at the start. Summer vacation and school bolidays give a severe test to the goods and the workmanship, Both

Should be Just Right.

FAIR BROS. & CO. make a special feature of Boys' Clothing. In style, finish, quality and PRICES

FAIR BROS. & CO'S CLOTHING

Is the thing.

EFFECTIVE APRIL 8, 1894, 4:25 P.	m.
No. 5. Mail 11:48 a.	m.
No. 7, Lim. Ex 11:25 p.	m.
No. 31, (Local) 4-35 P.	m.
EAST.
No. 6, Mail 12:50 p.	m
N. 0 11 Pu 1105 B

No 32, (Local) 5:54 a. m. H. MERRICK, Ag't, Beaver Dam.

FROM

Soft, Flexible and Positively Comfortable. Comfort costs no more than discomfort and the art of Fitting Feet is an established fact. It is better to be comfortable,

Than to suffer. The Correct styles this year are very Sensible.

SCHAPMIRE. - Hartford, K

FRIDAY, MAY 4, 1894.

Trade with Carson & Co. See Carson & Co. for Fertilizer.

Bring your wool to Carson & Co. Mr. H. C. Leach, Horton, was town Monday. Sheriff Stevens went to Louisville

Wednesday on business.

Try our $1 leather oxford.

CARSON & Co.

Mr. R. T. Tweedle went to Owensboro last Friday, returning Sunday. Station, is visting the family of Mr. F. M. Westerfield.

Mr. U. G. McPherson and Miss Maude Hawkins, of Deanfield, were married yesterday at the home of the Rev. D. F. Kerr, Presiding Elder of the Green River District, M. E. at Shinkle Chapel, May 30.

Laces for ladies at Carson & Co.

For meal and lard, call on A. D. For the best stoves on earth, callon

Arise and rejoice in one of Carson &

Just received at A. D. White's, new line of tinware

Messrs, Marlin Keith and George Platt are re-painting the Commercial daughter, Mrs. J. R. Crawford, of Mr. C. F. Schapmire, who has sufered an attact of inflamatory rheumatism is able to be out again. The town was painted a deep crimson last Saturday night in the regulation Wild West style. Miss Mary Cox, who has been visiting her uncle, Mr. W. A. Brotherton, of Owensdoro, has returned Col. W. M. M. Beaty was arrested Cromwell, for breach of the peare, and Mrs. E B. Pendleton leaves this morning for Tallapoosa, Ga, where she will visit her father, Mr. W. T.

Miss Susie May, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Daviess county for some time, came home

Mr. and Mrs. John J. McHenry returned Wednesday from a trip to Louisville, Lexington, Georgetown and other points. Rev James Taylor, Rosine who has been spending several days visiting his daughter, Mrs. Rowan Holbrook, returned home yesterday.

Mr. Harry Roberts came up from Owensboro Sunday morning on his bicycle, making the distance of 27 miles in two hours. He returned in the afternoon.

Chinn Bros. saw mill, three miles east of town, was considerably damaged Tuesday by the breaking of a bolt of the cylinder. Loss about $250. Another misfortune befalling the young men on the same day was the nangling of Mr. Lee Chinn's foot by Mrs. Jesse Mac Taylor, of Reynolds | the saw. He was raking away dust when his foot came in contact with the running saw.

lice Judge Carson, confessing judg-ment in three charges, one for breach P. A.) Nearly 700 pages and illustratof the peace, one for abusive language ed with 44 full paged engarvings. and the other for drunkenness. Fined Send 50c at once for complete outfit Church and Chaplain of the Kentucky $5 in each of the two first cases, and and terms. Special terms given on Department of the G. A. R., will de- $1 in the last. Costs $4 80, making a other fast selling works. liver the oration on Decoration Day total of $15.80. It all comes of the Saturday night revelry.

Pace is a sure winner as a barber. Mr. D J. Duncan, Rockport, was n town Wednesday.

For all kinds of tonsorial work, call on H C Pace.

The sure path to economy is through Carson & Co's store.

Mrs. R. R Wedding is very sick at her home on Walnut Street. Miss Lyda Morton returned from Prentis the first of the week

Prof. E. K. Shultz, Prentis, was in town the first of the week.

Mr. J. M. Wade, of McHenry, made our office a pleasant call Saturday.

Mr. W. S. Ford, of Olaton, called to see us while in town Saturday. Mr. John Thomas has a very painful carbuncle on the back of his neck. Mr. J. L. Carson attended Quarterly meeting at Sulphur Springs Sun-

Mr. J. B. Hayworth, of Horton, called at our office while in town Sat-

Fair Bros. & Co. want your wool. Bring it to them and get the best

Mrs. Alice Barnett and little son, Clarance, of Owensboro, are in the city this week.

Dr. G. W. Hinchee, Select, and Mr. Thomas H. Faught, Horton, calle 1 at our office Monday. Rev. R. D. Bennett South Carrollton, spent a day or two in town the first of the week. Mrs. A. J. Casey, of Owensboro, is visiting the family of her father, Judge E. Dudley Walker. Attorney E D. Guffy went to Hardinsburg yesterday on legal business. He returns to-morrow. Messrs. Marvin and Jesse Bean are re-painting the residence of Dr. J. E.

Pendleton on Union Street. Revs. Giles S. Taylor, Clinton county, and W. D Cox, Whitesville, called at our office Wednesday.

Mr. V. M. Stewart and daughter, Miss Janie, and Mrs. Ed. Stewart, Beda, gave us a pleasant call Wednesday.

Rev. T. J. Mitchell and Mrs. Mary Duncan, of McHenry, spent Sunday in town, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Felix.

Judge L. P. Little and Common wealth's Attorney J. E. Rowe, of Owensboro, were in the city Monday and Tuesday.

The best bargain in farm implements, plows, wagons, buggies, carts etc., are to be found at Taylor & Co's. Beaver Dam. They are headquarters in their line.

Little Verda, a daughter of Prof. R. D. Welborne, of Rockport, was badly scalded last week, by the overturning of a kettle of boiling water. The child will recover.

The ladies must have spring dresses. You can't expect them to go about looking like frights. Carson & Co. will furnish the goods and you can easily pay the bills. Rev. D. F. Kerr, Presiding Elder of the Green River District, M. E. Church, and Rev. J. B. Perryman and W. Ford. . C. Chamberlain, of No Creek, were pleasant callers Monday. Marriage license since our last report: U. G. McPherson to Miss Maude Hawkins, C M. Cole to Miss Mary

Mrs. S. M. Baird is visiting her A. E. Johnson. Colored-J. W. Acton to Miss Samantha Brackin. The country has long been looking to Congress for relief, but the people of our city look nearer home. They look to Carson & Co. for relief from high prices and find what they want. Mr. G. B. Hocker and daughter, Miss Ella Hocker, tormer residents of this county, but now of Sutherland Daviess county, have been spending several days with their old friends and acquaintances in and near town.

Many of the followers of Coxey have deserted his army, but those and tried last Wednesday week, at who started out trading with Fair Bros. & Co., have staid right by them and will do so to the finish, if they continue selling the best goods at the lowest price.

Mr. C. M. Cole, Davidson Station, and Miss Mary A. E. Johnson, Sulpur Springs, were married Tuesday at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. J. B. Perryman officiting. Mr. Cole is one of the county's best young men. He was engaged here for several months in Yeiser's black-smithshop, last year and now owns a half interest in a large shop at Davidson. His bride is a young woman of much worth and THE REPUBLICAN joins their friends in many good wishes for their success and happiness.

Hartford Water Mills Flour. 24-pound sack choice Fancy Flour an be had at 32 cents. Try it. Try a 24-pound sack of Rough River Flour. It only costs you 38 cents. You will like it. Best merchants

No other medicine has equaled Hood's Sarsaparilla in the relief it gives in severe cases of dyspepsia, sick headache, etc.

WANTED .- Agents in each county and town to sell the Greatest Book of the Age-Errors of the Roman Catholic Church and Sufferings Berry Rial came in Wednesday of the Martyrs under Polish Persecumorning and gave himself up to Po- tion, with Origin and Progress of the

J. H. CHAMBERS & Co... 914 Locust St., St Louis, Mo.

Visit Fair Bros. & Co's. Monday. Russian calf shoes at Fair Bros. &

Negligee shirts at Fair Bros. &

Fresh Cabbage at Stevens & Hard-

Mr. George Newman, of Owensboro, is in town.

Newest style of men's hats at Fair

Bros. & Co's. Biggest line of ladies slippers at Fair

Bros. & Co's. The most stylish Millinery is at Fair Bros. & Co's.

Handsomest line of neckwear at Fair Bros. & Co's.

For whatever you do, be sure and call on A. D. White. Mr. Henry Field returned from Louisville yesterday.

Note what money-saving chances Carson & Co. offer you.

Shoes that were made to walk in. at Fair Bros. & Co's. Ask to see Stevens & Hardwick's fine teas and green coffee. New Millinery good arrive every week at Fair Bros. & Co. Esqr. J. D. Byers and wife, Rosine, were in town yesterday. Mrs. Lizzie Gregory Walker, Louisville, visited in town this week.

Mr. W. H. Moore, of Sulphur Springs, came down yesterday. Mr. E. P. Moore, of Sulphur Springs, was in town yesterday.

Wool, ginseng, feathers and eggs wanted at Fair Bros. &: Co's store. Call on A. D. White and get wire cloth for windows and doors. A revival begins at the Methodist

Call on Stevens & Hardwick and get the worth of your time and mon-The latest bit of scandal in town is the scandalously low prices at Carson Stevens & Hardwick will give the best bargains in the grocery line.

Stevens & Hardwick want your produce, and it will pay you to see them before selling.

The Rosine School, taught by Prof. R. R. Wedding, closed a very successful session yesterday.

You can put on scollops for very little money if you buy your embroideries at Carson & Co's. Mr. Sid J. Myers, the popular salesman of Mendel Gosling & Company, Louisville, hatters is in town, Mrs. Caroline Townsend, of New York, arrived yesterday to visit her brother, Judge John C. Townsend. First-class hay and coin, first-class rigs and first-class accommodations, in every respect, at Casebier & Bur-

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Simmerman, Johnson City, Tenn., are visiting the family of her father, Mr. J.

Try our 25 cent hose-regular made Hermsdorf dye, opera length—the best hose ever sold for the money at Carson & Co. Remember that A. D. White has a few more barrels of salt at one dollar per barrel, but will not have any very ong at that price. It is no disgrace to be poor, but people who know how cheap Fair Bros. & Co. are selling their fine line of dress goods, say there is no need of dressing shabily. Dr. J. E. Pendleton and Messrs. Rowan Holbrook, Wm. Foreman and J. C. Westerfield went up the River Tuesday on a fishing excursion. Capt. Cox expects to join them to-

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Morton, formerly proprietors of the Sulphur Springs, but now living at Whitesville, will move to Southern California, where they will make their future home. Our people very much dislike to lose them, but they will be a valuable addition to the Kentucky colony in the Golden Gate Commonwealth.

Early yesterday morning Marshal Win. Lyons and Deputy Marshal G. W. Bunger went out to Hayti to secure some goods that Edmund Hines was charged with stealing near Calhoon last winter, Hines' wife brought out the articles as the officers read them from their list, but Edmund fled. A couple of shots were fired at him, but he only ran the faster.

To Parents and Children, It is positively against the rules of my 'bus lin e for all persons, especially children, to hang on to the back end of my 'buses while in motion on the streets, because the practice is dangerous and may result in serious damages, for which I will not be re-C. L. FIELD.

What makes a house a home? The mother well, the children rosy, the father in good health and good hu-All brought about by the use of De Witt's Sarsaparilla. It recom-minds itself. L. B. Bean.

Neuralgic Persons

And those troubed with nervousness resultin from care or overwork will be relieved by takin Brown's Iron Bitters. Genuin
tas trade merk and crossed red lines on wrappes Man r Persons tre broken down tom overwork or hous rebuilds the system, aids digestion, removes or

Miss Polina Hoover, of Westerfield. was bitten by a mad dog last week and has since suffered greatly, but at last accounts was improving, a mad stone having been applied to the Taylor & Co., of Beaver Dam. handle a large line of hard wood, lumber, ceiling, flooring, doors, windows, sash, metal roofing, in fact everything in the building line. Call on or write them before puchasing.

Little Edwin Fair, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. McDowell Fair, died last Thursday night and was buried in the Hartford Cemetery Friday. The little life so beautifully begun is thus cut off and the spirit has returned to the God who gave it.

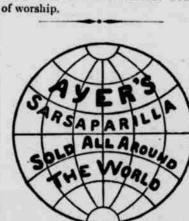

Mr. Shelby Taylor, Beaver Dam, graduated with high honors with his class at the Louisville Law Scool last Friday night. He is a talented young man and has an exceedingly bright future. Shelby, here's to the fulfillment of your highest ambitions.

The case of the Commonwealth against W. A. Edwards for cutting Wm. Bradshaw recently, came up before Judge John P. Morton, last Saturday and the defendant waived an exmining trial and was held to answer at the next term of the Circuit Court and his bond was placed at $250. which was executed.

List of letters remaining in the Hartford Post-office, which if not called for in thirty days, will be sent to the dead letter office: E. B. Allen, Mrs. Ellen Bell, Mr. McMiller, Mrs. Lillian Jones, G. T. McHoney, Mrs. E. H. Johnson, W.E. Meek, M. Thomas Marshal, Mr. Gabe Wright and Rev. Jesse White. W. H. GRIFFIN, P. M.

Rolla Sanders, who broke jail here some three weeks ago, is said to be going around his home in the northern part of the county. He was seen Church about the first Sunday in at Reynolds Station last Thursday and has been seen at various other times since his escape. Rewards amounting to $125 await to gladden the purse of the man who runs him

> A crowd of about eight hundred people gathered at Prentis last Sunday to attend the dedication of the new Slaty Creek Church. The day was bright and beautiful and though quite warm, was not excessively hot. Rev. John O'Brien, of Dawson, who assisted in the revival at Prentis last fall, preached the dedicatory sermon and Rev. S. J. Stearsman, the pastor. offered the dedicatory prayer. Revs. A. B. Smith and G. W. Gordon, T H. Bellmain and H. P. Brown were among the visiting ministers. No collections for church debt was taken on the grounds, as the house is entirely paid tor, a record very unusual. The people are justly proud of

FOR THE CURE OF Catarrh, Scrofula, Bolls, Eczema Carbuncies, Sores, And all Other Skin Diseases.

EQUALLY EFFECTIVE IN Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, and all complaints originating in Impure Blood Aver's Sarsaparilla

SEASON OF 1894.

Has cured others, will cure you.

SAM "ROWELL," NO. 5006. This fine and grandly bred young Stallion will make the present season of 1894 on Monday and Tuesday at our farm in the Little Bend, four miles southeast of Prentis; Wednesdays and Thursdays at our stable at Beaver Dam; Fridays and Saturdays at A. C. Ellis', 3 miles north of Hartford, and will be permitted to serve mares at $12.00 to insure. Money due when the fact is ascertained or mare trans-

Mares will be grazed at 50 cents pe. week or fed at the cost of grain. Care will be taken to prevent accidents, but not responsible should any occur. Premium of $18, will be given to the best general utility colt. $12 to first and $6 to second SAM SOWDERS & SONS, Beaver Dan PEDIGREE. - "Sam Rowell," by Model Record 2:30; he by Lexington Chief, Jr., 2103, by Lexington Chief, 589. First dam Maude T., by Blue Bull, Jr., 2878. Second dam by Sell's Black Hawk. Model Record 2:30 on sale tor train No. 7 May 8th and (sire of Granville K. 2:29 1/4) by Lexington Chief, Jr., 2103 (sire of Wait-

DESCRIPTION.— Sam Rowell is a. m. Wednesday, May 9, at 5 1/2 hands high, foaled in 1887, sound at Dallas 7 a. m., May 10th. in every way, very handsome bay with little white on hind coronets, and is a good looker. He is double gaited, and can pace or trot close to 2:40. He is quietly disposed, a splend-id breeder, and transmits his good qualities and style to his progeny.

Another Bomb.

The present time deservss to be recorded in the pages of French history as the age of bombs. Citizens are terrorized. the minions and watch-dogs of the law are kept busy unearthing

Diabolical Plots

And bringing the offenders to justice, and their whole social system is disordered. In spite of vigilance, however, a scheme has just come to light that has

Blown to Pieces

The combination to keep up, against the protest of the public, high prices on Clothing and Furnishing Goods in this city, as well as other articles of general wear.

A Vicious Blow

Has been dealt, and prices have been revolutionized. The people demanded it and CARSON & CO. complied with the demand. The day of high prices is past and low prices will hold full sway. The monopolistic march has been Arrested

And the people are released from the bondage in which they have so long been held. Henceforth they will get a guaranteed quality and extensive assortment to choose from, at prices which are the lowest of the low. There is an end to all things. The crisis that for so long

Hung

In the balance has burst upon us and through the dim vista of the future content and happiness can be seen for those who trade at

CARSON & CO. POSITIVELY!

We have something to SAY this week and we claim the attention of the people.

+OUR MAY SUITS+

In Styles and prices are superb. young men and youths of the country want to buy, and we are ready to sell, so we feel that this notice will be read with interest, and our trade will be largely increased, hence our appearance in print this week, to call attention to our SPECIAL LINES OF CLOTHING

Which are on the market at PRICES to please the customers. Our Bargain Counter will be of interest to those wanting "Odds." Come at once, for trains of May 9, 10, 11 and 12,'94, at $22.55 for the round trip, limited ing, 2:24½) Daisy R., 2:25½. Lexington Belle, 2:28¼, by Lexington Chief 586, sire E. W. Twichel, 2:30: Blue Bull, Jr., by Wilson's Blue Bull, 75. sire of Joe B., 2:19. Royal Bounce, 2:19. and sixty others in the 2:30 list.

Subscribe for The Louisville Commercial. papers one year for only $1.25, in advance.

The "Big Baptist Train" will leave Memphis via "Cotton Belt" at 11 a. m. Wednesday, May 9, and arrive

H. MERRICK, Agent.

THACHERS And those desiring certificates should REPUBLICAN and the write for catalogue of The Teachers' Weekly
Both

Training School. A summer course.
Opens June 4th.
R. E. CROCKETT, Principal.
Elkton, Ky.

> J. D. MADDOX, Sec'y. Get our prices on Job Wok before going elsewhere.

Rockport Lodge no 312 F. & A. M.

meets regularly every first and third

Saturday night. W. A. BELL, W. M.

Will Leave Beaver Dam about 19th or 26t of April. All persons wanting firstclass photographic work, I will be glad to make them. Remember I use the Instantaneous Process for Baby Pictures. Come to Beaver Dam for your Photos, where you always get first-class work. Yours truly,

A. D. TAYLOR. A good second hand cart. Call at office or address the REPUBLICAN